

Hillsborough County Bar Association Proudly Presents:

Paralegal Ethics CLE Luncheon: Ethical Dilemmas in a Down Economy

Tuesday March 11, 2010

12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.

1.5 CLE Credits*

Chester H. Ferguson Law Center
1610 N. Tampa Street
Tampa, FL 33602

Topics Covered:

- Recent Developments – Supreme Court Establishes Florida Registered Paralegals
- Rules regarding responsibilities of Florida Registered Paralegals
- National Federation of Paralegal Associations
- Actual opinions issued by the NFPA Ethics Board
- Discussion of Ethical Dilemmas – specific factual scenarios

Presented by:

Joryn Jenkins, Esq. practices appellate, bankruptcy, commercial, and family litigation. Prior to opening her own practice, she was a full-time professor at Stetson College of Law, instructing classes on Debtors' Protections and Creditors' Rights, Appellate Practice, and Trial Practice. A graduate of Yale University, and of Georgetown Law Center, she has practiced law for nearly thirty years. She founded, and is a master in Tampa's Cheatwood American Inn of Court, having a special interest in issues involving legal professionalism, civility, ethics, and excellence.

Register by visiting www.hillsbar.com or calling 813.221.7777

$35 HCBA Members/ $40 Non-Members

*Applied For