

Le Havre Details

Members of the HCBA will be traveling to Le Havre to participate in a joint CLE program with the Le Havre Bar Association the week of March 25, 2012.

CLE Details:

The HCBA and Le Havre Bar Association will present a joint one day seminar on the overarching theme of the comparison between American and French law.

The Le Havre Bar Association has identified the following topics of interest for their group:

- Maritime Law
- Family Law
- Labor and Employment
- Corporate Law
- Criminal Defense and the presumption of innocence
- American court structure and the legal profession in general
- Other topics of our choosing

Activities:

The Le Havre Bar has also proposed the following social activities for our trip:

- Dinner with the Mayor of Le Havre
- Visit to Normandy and the D Day Beaches and Museum
- Wine and Cheese Tasting
- Day trip to Paris
- Day trip to Honfleur and Deauville

A tentative itinerary is attached.

Travel:

We are working with Nina Long, World Travel Adventures (813-949-1567 or ninalong@gte.net), on transportation and lodging. Additionally, approximately eighteen members of the Le Havre Bar Association have offered to host some of our members in their homes.

If you have any questions, please contact Amanda Uliano, CLE Director, 813-221-7782 or amanda@hillsbar.com
